

Skeldon Consulting Partners and Events

Founder and President of J. Skeldon Consulting Partners and Events, Jen Skeldon, brings over twenty years of experience working with organizations desiring to make a positive and measurable impact in the community. Jen specializes in project and event management, professional development, capacity building, social media engagement, and community outreach.

Jen's expertise has assisted several nonprofit organizations in maximizing resources and raising over a million dollars through special events and fundraising initiatives. Her clients include Avenues for Autism (Great Lakes Collaborative for Autism), Advocates for Basic Legal Equality and Legal Aid of Western Ohio, Dental Center of Northwest Ohio, Carly Cares, Aurora Project, Toledo-Lucas County Public Library, American Red Cross, and YWCA of Toledo. Jen has planned and managed hundreds of events, including concerts, lecture series, galas, golf outings, award ceremonies, dinners, and hosted national recording artists, TV and film personalities, authors, comedians, and pro athletes. Before opening her consulting firm, Jen held positions at The University of Toledo, Mercy College of Ohio, and Toledo School for the Arts.

Jen holds a Bachelor of Arts and Master of Education from The University of Toledo and has presented at the national and state level on the topic of event and program development and volunteer engagement.

J. Skeldon Consulting Partners and Events specialize in initiatives to enhance workplace engagement. We partner with organizations to identify philanthropic efforts, service opportunities, event participation, and sponsorship to make a meaningful and measurable impact on the community.
